Palates & Pâté Aperitif Party

White leather sofas transformed the Outreach Center into warehouse chic, the better to thank the sponsors, preview the art and sample hors d'oeuvres. Zea, Bonefish Grill and Tsubaki's were ready on the line, while Schilling tended bar and the Nouveau String Band kept 'em coming in, but all for a good cause. "It's more than just an event," said volunteer Linda Turner. "The benefits go on all year long."

Enjoying the ambience: The IberiaBank Brigade, Platinum sponsors Gary and Rita Keller, Dr. Hector Lasala, gentleman Jim McGehee and new-girl-in-town Genevieve Ingraldi, who allowed as how Louisianians are just about the nicest people she's ever met.
